

Invitation

Side event »The Future Role of the NAMA Facility in Unlocking Finance for Ambitious Mitigation Actions«

Monday, November 13, 2017,
9:30–11:00 am, European Union Pavilion,
Bonn Zone, Room Tallinn

Moderated by Ash Sharma, Senior Adviser, NAMA Facility

- Donors' Statements
 - Rt Hon Claire Perry, Minister of State, Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, United Kingdom
 - Parliamentary Secretary of State Rita Schwarzelühr-Sutter, Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation, Building and Nuclear Safety, Germany
 - Mr Roberto Ridolfi, Director for Planet and Prosperity DG International Cooperation and Development, European Commission
- Renewable Energy NAMA in Chile: Transforming the small scale renewables sector in Chile
 - Minister Marcelo Mena Carrasco, Ministry of Environment, Chile
- Working towards transformation of the Colombian refrigeration sector and scaling up Transit Oriented Development in Colombia
 - Ms. Marina Rojas, Director of Climate Change, Ministry of Environment, Colombia
- National financing programmes under the new Housing NAMA in Mexico
 - Dr. Jorge Wolpert, General Director, CONAVI (National Housing Commission), Mexico
- Closing Statement from Danish Ministry of Climate, Energy and Buildings
 - Mr Asger Garnak, Head of International Department Danish Ministry of Climate, Energy and Buildings
- Q&A Session

The NAMA Facility is a joint initiative of the German Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation, Building and Nuclear Safety (BMUB), Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy (BEIS) of the United Kingdom, the Danish Ministry of Energy, Utilities and Climate (EFKM) and the European Commission to support the implementation of ambitious and transformational National Appropriate Mitigation Actions (NAMAs) in developing countries and emerging economies.

Find out more at www.nama-facility.org

On behalf of Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation,

Building and Nuclear Safety

Department for Business, Energy
& Industrial Strategy

Danish Ministry of Energy, Utilities and Climate

